

SIPPs – possibly your new best friend!

- Is the Credit Crunch worrying you?
- Do your clients need a tax efficient incentive to buy commercial property?
- Would you like information on different ways in which people can use their pensions to buy commercial property?

We are hosting a seminar that will provide information to answer these and any other questions about SIPPs you may have. The seminar will be chaired by Guy Longhurst from Ellisons.

Tony Hales – Stadia Trustees Limited

Tony is the managing director of Stadia Trustees Limited in Colchester who are establishers, administrators and trustees of SIPP schemes. In the last tax year Stadia handled various types of property and land being put into SIPPs. These included different kinds of syndicated property purchases and even a golf course as an in-specie contribution. Tony will demonstrate how SIPPs could prove to be invaluable to your business.

We hope you will join us for a good cooked breakfast, coffee and an informative and interesting seminar.
